

Glattfelder

TIMELINE

Name: Glattfelder

Can be documented since: 1315

Coat of arms of the Glattfelder family:

The crown means that an ancestor was a master goldsmith in Zürich and this is the symbol of this craft.

The sword is Justice (Law)

The stars mean the light and glamour of the lineage.

The 2 lilies of the valley and the three mountains have no special meaning.

The main symbol of the coat of arms is the crown, which is referring to the profession.

The name is derived from the place of origin, Glattfelden. One lineage of the Barons of Tengen, who was the reigning family of Glattfelden, named themselves as the "Tengen from Glattfelden"
