

The coat of arms is reminiscent in shield shape and colors of Lengen-Kellenburg, which not only occupy landlordly rights in Glattfelden, but as a supporter of the manor Eglisau, to which the village formerly belonged, also exercised the high court bar side, in gold three black stags.